

The ILM Association is a new trade association formed to represent this new industry. Founded by eleven of the largest and most recognized names in the nascent education innovation industry, its membership is open to all reputable companies operating in the sector. It will also offer affiliation membership to those in situ

